SOUTHERN CARIBBEAN CRUISE

April 18 - 30, 2016

CRUISE HIGHLIGHTS

Labadee, Haiti

Only Royal Caribbean can take you to the private beach destination of Labadee. Our private paradise sits on the north coast of Haiti, surrounded by beautiful mountain slopes and exotic foliage. This exclusive destination offers pristine beaches, breathtaking scenery, incredible thrills and spectacular water activities.

San Juan, Puerto Rico

One of the largest islands in the Eastern Caribbean, Puerto Rico's landscape encompasses mountains, underground caves, coral reefs, white-sand beaches and an incredibly massive rain forest that supplies fresh water to most of the island. Founded in 1521, San Juan's picturesque cobblestone streets, plazas and chapels reflect its Spanish heritage. But the second oldest city in the Americas also boasts fine beaches, lush rainforests, verdant mountainsides, imposing forts and a lovely tropical climate. At the same time San Juan, the capital of the commonwealth, is a big city with a bustling business district, glitzy resorts and casinos, as well as one of the most stunning examples of colonial life in the Western world.

Philipsburg, St. Maarten

When the Spanish closed their colonial fort on St. Maarten in 1648, a few Dutch and French soldiers hid on the island and decided to share it. Soon after, the Netherlands and France signed a formal agreement to split St. Maarten in half, as it is today. Philipsburg displays its Dutch heritage in its architecture and landscaping. The island offers endless stretches of beach, beautiful landscapes and great shopping. You may want to rendezvous at one of the newest and trendiest restaurants in French St. Maarten, explore Orient Bay, the French Riviera of the Caribbean, with over 1 1/2 miles of white-sand beaches or admire the delicate nature and dazzling colors of hundreds of butterflies as you tour St. Maarten's popular Butterfly Farm.

Bridgetown, Barbados

Fort de France, Martinique

Fort de France oozes charm from its luscious hills and captivating local flavor. It's the capital of Martinique and sits at the end of a huge bay. There is a historic feel to its narrow streets, wrought-iron balconies and shuttered doors. Come and fulfill your sense of adventure, as well as your other five senses. At the center of town is La Savane, a beautiful garden where you can grab a snack from one of the many vendors who line the edges of the park. This is the ideal spot to come after all of your sightseeing to sit back and take it easy.

Bridgetown, Barbados

Barbados gained independence from the British in 1966, but their influence is still apparent on this stunning Caribbean island. The most British of all the Caribbean islands, games of cricket are as common here as the tropical island water sports. English is the native tongue, Cricket is the national sport and tea is still a favorite drink. It is no wonder that this piece of paradise was once called "Little England." Visit the third-oldest Parliament in the entire Commonwealth. Stroll the inviting beaches of the Carlisle bay, tour a rum factory or the historic Garrison area.

Basseterre, St. Kitts

Although founded by the French in 1627, St. Kitts is a very British paradise where cricket and tea are the norm. With dormant volcanoes, golden sand beaches and gorgeous green hills, St. Kitts is a beautiful backdrop to your Caribbean adventure. The island's deep colonial history is reflected in the abandoned fortresses, as well as its landscaped gardens, city squares and architectural details. Explore Brimstone Hill Fortress National Park and climb to the top of the main hill to take in amazing views of St. Eustatius and Sandy Point Town. Walk through Independence Square, originally built in 1790 for slave auctions and council meetings. Visit St. George's Cathedral, rebuilt in 1869 in typical Georgian style after being destroyed more than once.

Please see your Travel Agent to reserve your choice of shore excursions.

GENERAL INFORMATION
